July 25, 2011

Dear TDLA Members :

I am pleased to announce TDLA's fifth annual meeting to be held at the Hilton Garden in Portsmouth, NH on September 16 and 17, 2011. We have a great program lined up, and hope you will be able to join us.

On Friday, September 16, we will have a cocktail reception and a dinner so we can all visit and get re-acquainted with old friends and meet new ones. After dinner, we are pleased to announce that our special guest is the award winning legal journalist and best-selling author and lawyer Mark Curriden. Mark is a senior writer for the ABA Journal and a regular contributor to the New York Times DealBook on matters related to corporate and business law. Mark is an entertaining speaker, and he will be sharing the story of Ed Johnson, a young black man from Chattanooga, Tennessee who was falsely accused of rape and his two lawyers who filed the first successful federal habeas corpus action in a state criminal case. It is a compelling and moving story not to be missed. If that's not enough, this presentation is approved for 1 hour of CLE ethics credit, as well.

On Saturday morning, September 17, we have several great CLE programs planned: A discussion of the Medicare Secondary Payer Act by New Hampshire lawyer and DRI President Matthew Cairns; A discussion of 5th Amendment privileges in Civil Litigation by New Hampshire attorney Andy Schulman; and a presentation on closing arguments by Stephen Morrison, a South Carolina trial attorney and DRI member who regularly lectures on trial practice, and is an extremely engaging speaker.

Our annual meetings have proven to be excellent in every way; they provide wonderful opportunities to socialize with our friends and colleagues in all three states, they provide excellent and informative CLE opportunities, and most of all, they are a lot of fun in a great setting. Be sure to spread the word to your colleagues to join TDLA and attend our fifth annual meeting! I hope to see you all at the meeting. And bring a date.

Sincerely yours,

Blair
